

“Susan and Ron from The Dog Training Company have been producing results for quite a while. I've seen them work, and I've seen the results of that work. They can get the job done.”

“Quality dog trainers are few and far between. Susan and Ron are quality plus. I would not hesitate sending family and friends to them for training. That's how sure I am of their abilities with all types of dogs and dispositions. Give them a try, you'll be making the right decision for yourself and your dog.”

George Cockrell

Professional Dog Trainer Companions Dog Training
Inter'nAssoc.CanineProfessional- Regional Groups Coordinator
Inter'nAssoc.CanineProfessional -Board of Directors
No Limitations Remote Collar Specialist
Kensington, Md. (301) 493-9542 3

About George: Mr. Cockrell is one of the most respected dog trainers in the country. He is owner of Companions Dog Training in Maryland. He is a third generation trainer and in business since 1977. George is expert in dealing with serious aggression issues, electronic training and traditional approaches to canine problems. His main business revolves around private, in home training. George also has extensive background working with Wolves and Wolf Dog Crosses and gundogs. A 43 time winner of the PETS MART Top Hand Award.