Re: dog training/obedience

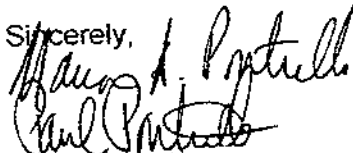

Dear Dr. Fisher:

You first met our chocolate brown labrador puppy, Jake, when he was 4 months old. At that time, we were having problems with his aggression; Jake was great as long as everything went "his" way. We had one trainer come to the house for a few visits which helped somewhat; however, we felt that Jake needed a lot more obedience training and discipline if we were to all live happily together.

A few people had told me about The Dog Training Company (609) 859-5555, and had experienced positive results. After talking with the owners, Susan Engel and Ron Nober, about Jake's background, personality, behavior at home, etc., we sent him there for the in-house residency program. Now, at eight months old, I have to say that we are thrilled with the change in our dog. The training he received has made him more pleasant, controllable and enjoyable to be around. I especially love the fact that I now can walk Jake on a leash calmly and normally, without him trying to pull me. Also, it is obvious to anyone that Susan and Ron truly love the dogs they train; and are treated just like their own. In addition, Ron comes to my home for follow-up lessons and Jake looks forward to seeing his friend as much as I do!

We believe that if we had not sent Jake to The Dog Training Company he probably would not be with us today. Not only did we receive a better understanding of our dog's instinctive, pack behavior, but lessons on how to correct those behaviors which are inappropriate in a home environment. I can only say that I highly recommend Susan and Ron to anyone who needs training, either for a serious, problem behavior or just basic obedience. Our entire family is certainly glad we invested in this training for our now wonderful, very lovable puppy.

Sincerely,

Maria & Paul
